Right to Opt Out of Release of Information to Military Recruiters (Students in Grades 7–12 & Ungraded Students Only)

Federal laws require that local education agencies (LEAs) such as DCPS provide military recruiters, upon request, with the name, address, and telephone number of secondary students unless the student or parent/legal guardian has advised the LEA in writing that he/she does not want the student's information disclosed without prior written consent. Such advisement must take place within 30 days of the notification of these rights by the school, and may be done by completing the form below:

_____ As a student who has reached the age of 18, I request that DCPS not release my directory information to the Armed Services, military recruiters, service academies or military schools.

_____ As a parent/legal guardian, I request that DCPS not release the directory information for the student indicated above to the Armed Services, military recruiters, service academies or military schools.

Student's Signature Date

Parent/Legal Guardian's Signature Date

Notice of Non-Discrimination In accordance with state and federal laws, the District of Columbia Public Schools does not discriminate on the basis of actual or perceived race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, family status, family responsibilities, matriculation, political affiliation, genetic information, disability, source of income, status as a victim of an interfamily offense, or place of residence or business.
